UNIT TRUST OF INDIA

No. UT. 11090/NP-3-75/76, dated 19th April 1976.—The following amendments to the Unit Schemes 1964 and 1976 and the Children's Gift Plan 1970 made by the Board of Trustees of the Unit Trust of India at its meeting held on the 18th March 1976 are published for general information :—

Amendment to Unit Scheme 1976

After Clause 14 of Unit Scheme 1976, a new Clause 14 A shall be inserted, namely :—

“14A(1) Investments by the Trust from the funds of this scheme in securities of any one company shall not exceed ten per cent of the securities issued and outstanding of such company.

Provided that the aggregate of investments in securities of new industrial undertakings which have yet to reach dividend-paying stage shall not at any time exceed five per cent of the total amount of the funds of this scheme.

(2) Investments in convertible bonds/debentures of companies shall not in the aggregate exceed fifteen per cent of the total amount of the funds of this scheme.

(3) The limits prescribed in sub-clauses (1) and (2) shall be applied with reference to circumstances at the time the investments are made, and shall not be deemed to have been exceeded, notwithstanding that, by reason of the fluctuations in the market prices of the investments, or by reason of issue of bonus shares or rights shares by the company in whose securities investments have been made, the limit is in fact exceeded.

Explanation : In this clause the term “company” shall have the same meaning as is assigned to it in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956).

Amendments to Unit Scheme 1964

In the Unit Scheme, 1964 the following new clause shall be added :

“20A—Transfer of Units to C. G. P. 1970—

- (1) Units held in personal capacity by an individual of individuals, none of whom is a minor, may, by an instrument in writing in a form approved by the Chairman of the Trust for that purpose, be transferred, in multiples of ten (subject to a minimum of fifty units) in favour of a child who has not completed the age of 15 years as on the date on which the instrument referred to above is tendered to the Trust and on the registration of the transfer in the books of the Trust, the provisions of the Children's Gift Plan, 1970 shall be applicable to the units so transferred as if such units had been issued the said Plan.

- (2) The instrument of transfer shall be signed by the transferer(s) and by a parent or guardian of the transferee child and the transferer(s) shall be deemed to remain the holder of the units transferred until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect thereof.
- (3) The instrument of transfer shall be duly stamped (if under the law it requires to be stamped) and left with the Trust for registration alongwith the relative unit certificate or certificates and such other evidence as the Trust may require in support of the title of the transferer(s).
- (4) All instruments of transfer, which may be registered, shall be retained by the Trust.
- (5) When units have been transferred, the Trust shall issue to the transferer, or one of the transferers whose signature appears first on the instrument of transfer in case units are held in the names of more than one person, as the case may be one unit certificate to be governed by the provisions of the Children's Gift Plan, 1970 representing the units transferred in favour of the child. When the transferer(s) has/have transferred only a portion of the units covered by a certificate, the Trust shall issue in the name of the transferer(s) a fresh certificate for the units not transferred by him/them. Before issuing any unit certificate, the Trust may require the transferer, or one of the transferers whose signature appears first on the instrument of transfer in case units are held in the names of more than one person, as the case may be, to pay a fee of Rupee One per certificate together with a sum sufficient in the opinion of the Trust to cover stamp duty, if any, or other charges or taxes that may be payable in connection with the issue of such certificate or certificates.
- (6) While transferring units under sub-clause (1), the transferer(s) may indicate in the instrument of transfer that in the event of the child specified in the instrument dying before attaining the age of 21 years, another child mentioned in this behalf in the instrument and being not more than 15 years of age as on the date on which the instrument referred to in sub-clause (1) has been tendered to the Trust, shall be entitled to all the rights of the first mentioned child.

Amendments to the Children's Gift Plan 1970—

- (1) In the Children's Gifts Plan 1970, a new Paragraph 2 A shall be added as follows :—

'2A. In this Plan—

(a) "Application" means the application referred to in paragraph 4 of this Plan or the instrument of transfer referred to in sub-clause (1) of clause 20 A of the Unit Scheme, 1964, as the case may be.

(b) "applicant" means the individual who makes application under paragraph 4 of this Plan, or, in the case of transfer of units in accordance with clause 20A of the Unit Scheme, 1964 (i) the transferer if the unit certificate proposed to be transferred is held in single name, or (ii) one of the transferers whose signature appears first in the instrument of transfer of the unit certificate proposed to be transferred is held in the name of more than one person.'

- (2) The first sentence of paragraph 8 shall be substituted by the following :

'Upon the conclusion of the sale in terms of paragraph 7 or transfer of units to the Plan in accordance with clause

20A of the Unit Scheme, 1964, the Trust shall issue to the applicant one unit certificate representing the units issued in favour of the child'.
